

ONE PLAN OF THE DEMOCRATS

Governor Boyd Tells How They Will De feat Harrison in Nebraska.

IOWA ALLIANCE AND DEMOCRATS MAY FUSE

vention Likely to Have an Interesting Fight—They Will Have the Battle Today.

PORTLAND, ORE., AUG. 10.—Speaking about the political outlook in this state, Governor Boyd of Nebraska, who is making a tour of the west, today said: "Cleveland will lose Nebraska because we shall not support him and will vote for Weaver, for the purpose of beating Harrison. We shall shut out our own ticket, but will support Weaver, and there is no hope of straight success."

MAY FUSE IN IOWA.

INDEPENDENTS AND DEMOCRATS TRYING TO GET TOGETHER.

DES MOINES, IA., AUG. 10.—The people's party state convention will meet here tomorrow. Very few delegates have arrived, but the leaders here are confident that the morning trains will bring large numbers of delegates. The fusion seems to be in confusion. There are some people's party men who are opposed to fusion on any grounds, but there is reason to believe that on a re-

The people's party men who are in favor of fusion generally remark that democrats will surrender the whole electoral ticket to them and the democrats will have a full state ticket. There is no unanimity of sentiment among the delegates on the question, but it is thought that they will not be adverse

The Weaver men claim that under no circumstances will they submit to such an arrangement. One of the Weaver men said tonight that he had reason to believe the democrats would endorse their electoral ticket. He said the democrats have nothing to lose and everything to gain by making the Waverly, Ia., Aug. 10.—The democrats of the Third Iowa district today nominated State Senator Shields of Dubuque for congress.

President Burke Issues an Address to the League.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—James F. Burke, president of the College League of Republican Clubs, today issued the following address in behalf the league:

who compose it, as well as the regular republican party organization. It has served to enlist in the cause of republicanism and good government the most influential element of political thought and action. The active participation of collegemen in the affairs of state cannot fail to gratify every one interested in the purification of politics and the elevation of the standard of citizenship. It is great parties of today and ally himself with that party which he believes is the true exponent of the principles of free government, and whose platform of principles he believes to be in happiest harmony publican party, through the college league, invites such investigation and affords to the young men of today an opportunity of conducting such research freely, intelligently and without bias. That the organization may become as permanent and powerful as to advance its growth during the coming campaign. President Clarkson has extended to the college republicans an invitation to participate in the national convention of the Republican league of the United States at Buffalo, October 12. The conven-eligible to membership in the college league is earnestly urged to attend this meeting. Five thousand college men are invited to be present."

Georgia's Democratic Ticket.

convention met today. There is no doubt for the nomination of W. J. Northern, the present incumbent, for governor, and there will be very little contest over the other offices. After the permanent organization nomina-acclamation amid great demonstrations of applause, General H. Cook, secretary of state, was also renominated by acclamation, as were Mr. A. W. Wright, comptroller, and General R. U. Hardman for weather defeating W. C. Glenn of Fulton by a vote of 255 to 86. R. T. Nesbit was nominated for commissioner of agriculture, having no opposition. Electors on the national ticket were selected as follows: State-at-large W. T. Gary, Richmond; J. S.

Harrington; Second, W. W. Wainners; Third,
J. E. Hinton; Fourth, H. C. Adamson; Fifth,
B. M. Blackburn; Sixth, Frank Flint;
Seventh, J. M. Young; Eighth, John P.
Shaunon; Ninth, W. E. Simmons; Tenth,
John W. Lindsay; Eleventh, Mack McCoog.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 10. —The prohibitionists met in convention today at Silver Springs, adopted the prohibition national platform and selected presidential electors. A resolution was adopted sanctioning the Following the state convention district conventions were held to nominate members to congress. The First district nominated Isaac S. Turner of Providence, and the Second district Edwin A. Lewis of Westerly.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Aug. 10.—The republicans can state convention met this morning and effected a temporary organization. Adjourned until 3 p. m.

He Needed Some of Cobb's Tea.

congressional district at Thompson. He spoke two hours and at the end of his speech collapsed physically.

BACK FROM HIS CHILI TOMB.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The Pacific mail steamship Columbia came up to her pier this morning. The metallic casket containing the remains of the late President was on board.

also, was taken off and was transferred by W. S. McCreary, United States consul at Valparaiso, to the charge of the Philadelphia committee. The United States flag was placed over the casket.

military funeral will take place Sunday,